NORWAY AND SOUTH PARIS, ME., FRIDAY, JANUARY 18, 1900.

1804. 1890.

Hebron Academy

The Spring Term of Hebron Academy will open—

Tuesday, January 28th, 1890

under its old board of instruction.

The history and location of this school is free from dangerous influences, and the wonderful success in raising in the three years $40,000 for new, spacious and adequate buildings, and the increasing of its endowment fund, promise a future grander than ever for

'OLD HEBRON.'

Three courses of study are offered of College, Classical and English. Special advantages are offered to teachers who desire studying a term or more; a special class will be formed for their instruction.

STUDENT FITTING FOR COLLEGE will be admitted to the University on Principal's certificate.

LARGE LIBRARY,

a gift of Wm. Hamblin Tannin, is open for free use by the students.

Thorough work and training by experienced and faithful teachers.

Three college graduates on board of instruction.

Information and catalogues free on application to Z. L. PACKARD, Secretary, W. E. SARGENT, Principal, Hebron, Me.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 10, 1902.

Entered as Second Class matter.

Check books of all sizes and on all banks furnished at the ADVERTISER'S office.

The new serial story will commence in a short time. You should read the opening chapters. It is the most interesting story ever published and is by the popular author, H. Rider Haggard, and is called "The People of the Deep".

If you are so unfortunate as to have the toothache, when in Portland you should call on M. F. Brooks, D. D. S., 339 Congress St. We will guarantee that he will use you well and hurt you as little as possible.

Old residents of Norway, who now reside in other states can have a bird's eye view of "the whole city" for forty cents. It will show them the growth of the town—the new houses as well as the old ones. You can locate the house you used to occupy as well as the houses of your neighbors.

The annual statement of the Oxford Co. of M. Mutual Fire Insurance Company in force to 1902 which amounts to $1,417,255. There have been 100 policies issued during the year and 112 have been cancelled and expired. The year closed Dec. 31, 1901, with a surplus of $120,730. The gain during the year is $120,730. The company is in a flourishing condition and reduces the expense of insurance to a very small sum.

Oxford County is in an excellent condition financially. The statement of the county officers just made public, shows that the $11,497.72 tax assessed upon the several towns in 1901, has been paid. The total receipts of the county treasurer were $11,922.42 and the total expenditures, $10,226.26, leaving a balance in the treasury Jan. 1, 1902, of $1,696.16. The resources of the county amount to $2,441.45, and the liabilities to $707.15, or $1,734.30 more resources than liabilities.

The Lewiston City Hall building was burned Tuesday evening, loss of property $200,000, not insured. The building, built eighteen years ago at a cost of $25,000, was a fine structure and was one of the finest in the city. It was burned by fire from a gas stove in the kitchen. The fire started at 10 o'clock and spread rapidly. The fire department arrived at 11 o'clock but were unable to save the building. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the kitchen. The fire started at 10 o'clock and spread rapidly. The fire department arrived at 11 o'clock but were unable to save the building. The fire was caused by a gas stove in the kitchen.

Very slippery and icy with snow now. Would like to see snow instead of so much ice.

The la grippe has struck us and it is very sick.

The family of L. B. Swan are sick at this writing. L. B. Swan, his son Leroy and Mrs. Swan are all very sick.

Mr. Flavin has been very sick since his return from Boston. He seems to be a little better now.

Mr. G. Hollis has moved into his new home on Main St. and also F. Kendall has moved into the same house from the lower ten. Mr. Hollis the upper ten. Mr. Kendall is to take C. H. Adams' place in the W. F. M. Co. shop. Mr. Adams is to take the place of Mr. Hollis. Mr. Adams has been very sick since his return from Boston. He seems to be a little better now.
